

ACTIVITY SHEET

EPISODE 2: VITAMIN D

Practise and consolidate your learning by completing our activities. In this one you need to choose the correct modal verb to complete the sentences below.

Question 1: In most countries of the world students _ _ _ _ _ pay university fees. There is simply no choice.

- Answer:
- a. must
 - b. need
 - c. can

Question 2: However, in Britain and some other countries, including even China, students _ _ _ _ _ borrow money from banks to cover compulsory fees. Banks are now making it possible for students to borrow money to cover fees.

- Answer:
- a. can
 - b. may
 - c. shall

Question 3: When I was going to university, I _ _ _ _ _ find a part-time job to earn some pocket money, because my family was not rich.

- Answer:
- a. had to
 - b. must
 - c. should

Question 4: There are not many jobs a student _ _ _ _ _ do part-time. Most students find jobs as waiters, serving in restaurants, or working in kitchens and so on.

- Answer:
- a. can
 - b. may
 - c. should

Question 5: I really believe that all students _ _ _ _ _ get a casual job, chiefly because it is good experience. This was the advice my father gave me and it helped me enormously.

- Answer:
- a. would
 - b. should
 - c. must

Question 6: I told you I _____ get a Distinction, and I did!

- Answer:
- a. will
 - b. would
 - c. shall

Question 7: For post-graduate study in the United States of America it _____ be possible to get a scholarship to cover the tuition costs of the degree.

- Answer:
- a. will
 - b. can
 - c. might

Question 8: However, I am not so sure – you _____ have to check.

- Answer:
- a. can
 - b. will
 - c. should

Question 9: Australians love the beach. It is important to remember that exposure to the Australian sun, especially in summer is dangerous. So, you _____ wear a hat.

- Answer:
- a. can
 - b. may
 - c. should

Question 10: Of course you really _____ to apply lots of sunscreen on exposed skin.

- Answer:
- a. ought
 - b. can
 - c. should

Answers

1. In most countries of the world students must pay university fees. There is simply no choice.
2. However, in Britain and some other countries, including even China, students can borrow money from banks to cover compulsory fees. Banks are now making it possible in Australia for students to borrow money to cover fees.
3. When I was going to university I had to find a part-time job to earn some pocket money, because my family was not rich.
4. There are not many jobs a student can do part-time. Most students find jobs as waiters, serving in restaurants, or working in kitchens and so on.
5. I really believe that all students should get a casual job, chiefly because it is good experience. This was the advice my father gave me and it helped me enormously.
6. I told you I would get a Distinction, and I did!
7. For post-graduate study in the United States of America it might be possible to get a scholarship to cover the tuition costs of the degree.
8. However, I am not so sure – you will have to check.
9. Australians love the beach. It is important to remember that exposure to the Australian sun, especially in summer is dangerous. So, you should wear a hat.
10. Of course you really ought to apply lots of sunscreen on exposed skin.